A GREAT DAY.

D. Bendheim & Sons' Fall Opening, Held Saturday.

The capacity of D. Bendheim & Sons' large and popular dry goods establishment was tested on Saturday by the crowd that came to attend their fall opening, which was a decided success in every particular. Indeed, it was the most beautiful and artistic ever seen in the city.

The store was elaborately decorated entirely with flags, bunting and beautiful gay-colored goods, as also with palms, ferns, begonias and other decorative plants, in large and small jars of ornamental pottery, from Van Lindley's nursery, and these formed a charming spot of green amidst the great variety of lovely things arranged with such exquisite taste.

In the dress goods department the display is the richest and most attractive in the city. Here there is an endless variety of all the latest novelties. Silk and worsted crepons so much in vogue, plain and chameleon mohairs of all the newest shades were conspicuous, as were also boussouffle canvas weaves, taffeta damasses with wavy effects, two and three-tone chevrons, bouret travlers with silk knolls, and numerous other silk, velvet and wool novelties.

At the silk counters are shown magnificent plain and Persian taffetas, satin duchesses and Japanese silks, which need only to be seen to be appreciated. Then, there are evening silks of every shade and tint with exquisitely jeweled trimmings to match, the effect oriental in design and coloring. Indeed, the things here displayed are so beautiful and dainty that notwithstanding the placard, "Please don't handle," it was an irresistible temptation just to touch the pretty fabrics merely for the sense of pleasure it gave the admirer.

On the right of the room as you enter a large show case contains all the latest novelties in neckwear. The assortment in this line is complete. Then, there are the accessories in the shape of gloves, handkerchiefs, ribbons, laces, mufflers, furs, trimmings of every kind, umbrellas and a long list of possibilities for every one.

In ladies' underwear nothing is lacking. The garments are all of fine quality and cut and well made.

The linen department is made attractive by a full line of table linens, towels and doilies. The prices here, as in other departments, being within the reach of all.

The complete equipment in ladies' cloaks also offers special attractions. A full line of jackets in all the new cloths and at every price, which make the heart of womanhood rejoice by reason of their style and warmth.

A great exhibition is made of beautiful rugs, brilliant in colors and most luxurious. Another feature are the handsome curtains, portieres and tapestries, richly designed. It seems that nothing has been omitted by the firm in this large, beautiful and carefully selected display of dry goods.

Notwithstanding the large crowd of shoppers and visitor coming and going throughout the day, asking eager questions about the fashions to prevail this season, there was equally as large a crowd in the evening to enjoy the music furnished by the fine orchestra, and express their admiration for the lovely things shown them.

Long before the doors were opened in the evening the crowd had begun to gather, and when at last they were permitted to enter this fairy like scene there were constantly heard on all sides such expressions as these: "Oh, how beautiful," "Isn't this lovely," "How perfectly exquisite," amid the bewilderment of beauty and loveliness revealed under the soft glow of the gas light.

It remains only to add that the preparation this popular firm has made for the fall trade surpasses every effort heretofore made in this market. The valued accessions to their list of patrons during the year indicate a continued expansion of their trade, and their many friends from all sections will receive from them an unusually agreeable reception.

A VISITOR.
P. S.—The reception will be held again this evening from 7:30 to 9:30.

Aged Lady Dead.
Mrs. M. G. Dudley, of Winston, aged 73 years, died yesterday morning at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. George Star, at Wilson, N. C., of paralysis, with which she had suffered about three weeks. She was the mother of Mrs. H. J. Williams, now New York, who is well known here. The remains were brought here for burial, and the funeral was held from Centenary church at 9 o'clock this morning, conducted by Rev. Dr. L. W. Crawford and Pastor Gay. Relatives and friends from Winston, Richmond, Va., and Wilson, N. C., attended the ceremonies.

WAR CLOUDS ARE GATHERING

Clas Between England and France Inevitable.

PARIS DIFFERS WITH LONDON.

And France Cannot Recede From Her Position on The White Nile Without a Revolution.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, Oct. 10.—It is the general belief that war is inevitable between England and France, as a result of the practical ultimatum sent by Lord Salisbury to the French government.

It is argued that the French government cannot recede from its present position in the matter of its occupation of the valley of the White Nile without great humiliation, and that such a recession would precipitate the revolution which has been in formation so long that it is just ready to burst should any pretext be offered.

THE FRENCH VIEW.

Paris, Oct. 10.—Le Matin, which is supposed to be directly inspired, says: "It is improbable that we shall risk war for the nominal possession of territory which, if we had them within our grasp, we would never be able to retain. We can retain our honor without retaining Fashoda. Prudence should tell us not to load ourselves with too much territory. We should be colonial, but in moderation."

SALISBURY CONGRATULATED.

London, Oct. 10.—The morning papers congratulated Lord Salisbury upon the firm attitude of the government in regard to Fashoda. There is a general spirit of exultation among political leaders and their statements are believed to indicate the government's policy.

THE CHORUS SWEELS.

Everywhere Great Crowds Greet Democratic Speakers.

Yesterday and last night added to the certainty of democratic victory. At Bethel church there was a tremendous gathering, the crowd being conservatively estimated at 3,000. Democrats from Cumberland, Robeson and Richmond, were there in great crowds. Nor were they alone, for in that vast assemblage were many former populist, who, like the honest men they are, have come over to the white man's party.

Mr. F. A. Woodard and John D. Shaw, Jr., made great speeches which will stir the people up to a more determined effort. At night the White Man's Union, of Stewardsville No. 3 was addressed by Mr. Hector McLean, candidate for the house, and John H. Cook, Esq., of Louisville.

At Canton.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Canton, O., Oct. 10.—President and Mrs. McKinley spent the morning in doors at the residence of their brother-in-law Barber, where the simple funeral service over Saxton is set for two o'clock this afternoon.

The coffin of the man who fell a victim to a woman's fury rested amid a profusion of flowers from the White House conservatory, and the local green-houses. The pall bearers were friends of the family. The President said to-day he expected to return to Washington at 9 o'clock to-night, and will then start from Omaha.

Off for Manila.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

San Francisco, Oct. 10.—Gen. Merriam has sailed with two hundred officers and five thousand men. The next and presumably the last expedition for Manila will be composed of companies from Oregon, Wyoming, Nevada, Kansas, First Tennessee and Iowa. The transports are now being prepared.

The Indian Situation.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Walker, Minn., Oct. 10.—The situation is more ominous, and the citizens are all arming. The Indians are threatening and another council will be held at noon today which will determine the matter. None of the members of the leading bands have signified their intention of attending.

Steamer Burning.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Philadelphia, Oct. 10.—The British steamer Wehawken, Philadelphia to Venice, is aground and burning in the Delaware river a few miles south of here.

A neatly wrapped parcel containing old chicken bones was knocked down to one young man for fifteen cents, but he did not have the appetite to eat 'em. Prof. Davis (de feller vot vares dat Jim Swinger kote), was the luckiest buyer. He received two very handsome photographs—one of the University foot ball team and one of the base ball team. It suited the Prof. better than it would have suited any one else, as he knew all the boys on the team at the time the picture was taken. Jonathan Redding was about the worst dissatisfied man in the whole "shooting match." He being a democrat, paid good price for a parcel of republican campaign literature. There was enough medicines sold to run a hospital for five years.

What do the colored citizens of Wilmington want with Winchester repeating rifles? The answer is plain. And yet there are white people in Guilford county who laugh at the statements that Wilmington is negro ridden. In the language of Bob Glenn, go down there and see for yourself. Verily, the white people suffereth long and are kind; but the limit will be reached. The colored people and their white allies in Eastern Carolina are really engaged in a dangerous business. Laugh at it if you will, white republicans. There is justice and retribution ahead. Better turn loose now and give the republican party over entirely to the negroes to whom it rightfully belongs.

Is it right for our retail merchants to be required to pay a heavy purchase tax, and then allow northern wholesale houses (so-called) to come down here (by their traveling representatives) and sell goods to the retail trade? We are informed this has been, and is, almost being done. By the way, have you noticed the large increase in the rate of purchase tax under fusion rule in North Carolina? For this, and various other reasons, don't you think it best to place the government again in honest democratic hands?

If you have not registered keep it in mind every day this week and be sure that you attend to it next Saturday. If you have moved from one ward or precinct to another you will have to get a transfer. The election machinery doesn't run as it used to run. Don't neglect to see that you are properly on the registration book in your own precinct. This will be the most important election in the history of the state. White men rally!

Is it true, as reported, that there is, on the republican ticket in Guilford a man who has recently declared that he is in favor of social equality? Of course he ought to be in favor of it if he isn't; but it is hardly expected of him to acknowledge as much. A man ought not to be ashamed to associate with the people who compose three-fourths of his political household.

In this campaign you can't tell where the color line is drawn by the color of a man's skin. Some men who are sunburned are as white as snow; and there are others whose skin is bleached like unto a lily, yet they are as black as tar! Don't believe it? Well, just watch them on election day.

THEY WANT RIFLES.

Negro Chairman of New Hanover Rep. Ex. Com. Orders Winchester.

The following article is taken from Sunday's Wilmington Star, and shows that the negroes in New Hanover mean to stay on top if it has to be accomplished by actual war:

The Star has known for several days of an effort on the part of certain negroes in this city to procure Winchester 16-shot rifles from the Winchester Arms Company, of New Jersey, and of a correspondence which ensued between the Odell Hardware Company, of Greensboro, and the negroes, and the same firm and certain prominent citizens of this city, which has debarred the negroes, at least from securing arms from the Winchester Company or the Odell Company, their agents for North Carolina.

The negroes had first applied to the Winchester Arms Co., for prices and the matter was referred to the Odell Company, who in turn wrote the negroes for a more full statement of what they wanted, and later, having their suspicions aroused by the answer received from the negroes, wrote to Messrs. W. E. Worth and M. W. Jacob, prominent citizens of this city, who advised the Odell Company to not fill the order as it was evident that the guns were wanted to arm negroes in case they should desire to create trouble with the white people on or before election day.

Yesterday's Raleigh Post published the letter which the Odell Company received, giving particulars as to the information the negroes wanted as to the guns. The letter is as follows:

"Wilmington, N. C., Sept. 27.

"Odell Hardware Company:
"Your to hand. I just want to what can I get 12-38-cal. guns with the privilege of 25. Sixteen Shooters twelve 32 and twelve 38. You need not be on easy when we order your goods we will send you a check for the amount charged we will await your answer.
"Respectfully,
"Wm. Lee,
"Care M. H. McAllister.
"504 S 5 Church."

The Post also published the following letter from Iredell Meares, Esq., of this city, in response to a telegram of inquiry from Raleigh, to-wit:

"Wilmington, N. C., Oct. 6.
"Have personally investigated the matter. William Lee is supposed to be cover for John William Lee, who is the negro chairman of the republican executive committee. McAllister is a negro living at the address named. Iredell Meares."

A DIVORCED MAN'S FREAK.

Did the Honors for His Successor in His Wife's Affections.

The novel sight of a divorced husband acting as best man to the groom at his former wife's second marriage was presented in East Baltimore to-night. Two weeks ago Mrs. Minnie Ostertag, a pretty young woman, was divorced from Albert Ostertag, a restaurateur. Last night she married John Emmert. Mrs. Ostertag was in white satin, and her former husband looked even happier than the groom in his new dress suit.

When the orchestra started the wedding march two little girls led the procession into the parlor. Then came the divorced man bearing a monster wedding cake. His former wife and the new husband-elect followed. After the ceremony Ostertag kissed his ex-wife, congratulated her new husband and sat on the left of the bride at the wedding supper. A few days ago Ostertag decided to his divorced wife a part of his property.—Baltimore Dispatch.

The Best Joke.

The best joke of the campaign, so far, was the claim of Senator Pritchard, in his interview in Washington last Saturday, that "we" would gain two congressmen in North Carolina this year. They have all but one now. Where are the two gains to come from? Another good joke was contained in the reason he gave for believing the fusionists would make big gains in the state. The reason assigned was that everything is so prosperous and everything selling at such good prices under the present national and state administrations. The farmers will be greatly tickled over this joke. Cotton is now selling in Newton at 4 to 4 1/2 cents, corn at 35 cents and wheat at 65 to 70 cents.—Newton Enterprise.

Old fashions in dress may be revived, but no old-fashioned medicine can replace Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by C. E. Holton.

A Clever Trick.

It certainly looks like it, but there is really no trick about it. Anybody can try it who has lame back or weak kidneys, malaria or nervous troubles. We mean he can cure himself right away by using Electric Bitters. This medicine tones up the whole system, acts as a stimulant to liver and kidneys, is a blood purifier and nerve tonic. It cures constipation, headache, fainting spells, sleeplessness and melancholy. It is purely vegetable, a mild laxative, and restores the system to its natural vigor. Try Electric Bitters and be convinced that they are a miracle worker. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50c a bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

ADAMS AND REYNOLDS SPEAK.

One of Those Mysterious Things That Pass in the Night.

Another of those unannounced republican speaking took place at the court house Saturday night. A Telegram reporter learned of it about 8 o'clock and though not invited, took the liberty to attend. When he reached the court house there were perhaps two hundred negroes and fifty white people present. Of the fifty white people about twenty-five are either present or prospective republican pie-eaters and all but about a dozen occupied seats inside the bar. At 8:15 Will Ragan arose and introduced the speakers—Judge Spencer B. Adams and Lieut-Gov. Charles A. Reynolds. Adams spoke first and began by telling the savages how the nomination for Congress had been forced upon him; how he regretted to give up his seat on the bench etc. He denied having refused to canvass the district with Kitchin, saying when Kitchin made the proposition he (Kitchin) had already canvassed part of the district and he (Adams) had not then accepted the nomination for congress. He denounced "Joeliferous" Daniels, editor of the News and Observer in the strongest language. He criticised Kitchin's record; he criticised Bob Glenn, Charles Aycock and every other democratic speaker, but all this failed to interest the negroes. Finally one old negro with a Chinese goatee fell asleep. Adams spoke louder as if trying to wake him but the negro snored on. Applauses were faint and far between. One by one the negroes went to sleep and some of them left the court house. After speaking for about an hour Adams took his seat. Half the white people had left and many of the "savages" were asleep.

Reynolds saw the condition of affairs and jumped up with a determination to wake every negro in the vicinity. He placed a small tan colored satchel on the table and every negro (who was awake) turned his eyes on that satchel. Suddenly Reynolds bounded back and pointing at the satchel yelled in thunder tones "There is Facts." The negroes settled back in their seats looking disappointed. Reynolds saw that "facts" wouldn't work in that crowd and most of the facts remained in the satchel. From this on he told jokes and criticised democrats. Reynolds can tell more jokes, none of which were ever heard before than any man since Vance. Between jokes he would praise Russell and Thompson. He said Russell is an honest man; and instead of a barrel of liquor in the secretary's office we now have an honest, Christian gentleman. At this some more negroes and Reynolds wound up by saying "Don't you let the democrats get that legislature, for if you do it's good-bye Nancy-Jane to you as sure as you are born."

You invite disappointment when you expect ment. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are pleasant, easy, thorough little pills. They cure constipation and sick headache just as sure as you take them. Howard Gardner.

Truth wears well. People have learned that DeWitt's Little Early Risers are reliable little pills for regulating the bowels, curing constipation and sick headache. They don't gripe. Howard Gardner.

A fact worthy of mention, and one which might be taken as a proper index of the sentiments of the negroes, was the deliberate holding up last night, on the public highway, of two of our best citizens by three impudent negroes who were returning from a political speaking. One approached the buggy, while another held the horse. The gentlemen in the buggy, thinking their lives in danger, immediately took steps to defend themselves, and the negroes disappeared.—Louisburg special to News and Observer.

Observations made at the Massachusetts agricultural experiment station show that 80 per cent. of the food of the ungainly and repulsive-looking toad is made up of insects injurious to agriculture. The toad is an especial enemy of the army worm, the cut-worm and greenhouse pests generally, and does a lot of good in its modest way.

How to Prevent Croup.

We have two children who are subject to attacks of croup. Whenever an attack is coming on my wife gives them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and it always prevents an attack. It is a household necessity in this county and no matter what else we run out of, it would not do to be without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. More of it is sold here than of all other cough medicines combined.—J. M. Nickle, of Nickle Bros., merchants, Nickleville, Pa. For sale by C. E. Holton.

"Ouida" has an idiosyncrasy that has probably never been shared by anyone else. She maintains a dog cemetery near her home in Florence, wherein each of her deceased canines is honored with a tombstone, on which is inscribed the name, age and peculiarly good qualities of the departed friend.

"Bobby has been worrying me to have you move to New York."
"What does he know about New York, I wonder?"
"He has found out some way that there are not enough school houses to accommodate the children there."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Three Doctors in Consultation.

From Benjamin Franklin.
"When you are sick, what you like best is to be chosen for a medicine in the first place; what experience tells you is best, to be chosen in the second place; what reason (if a theory) says is best, to be chosen in the last place. But if you can get Dr. Inclinatum, Dr. Experience and Dr. Reason to hold a consultation together, they will give you the best advice that can be taken."

When you have a bad cold Dr. Inclination would recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy because it is pleasant and safe to take. Dr. Experience would recommend it because it never fails to effect a speedy and permanent cure. Dr. Reason would recommend it because it is prepared on scientific principles, and acts on nature's plan in relieving the lungs, opening the secretions and restoring the system to a natural and healthy condition. For sale by C. E. Holton.

A young man who reaches the age of twenty-one after the close of registration, and on or before the 8th of November, can register and vote on the day of election. Or, if any elector has been a resident of the state twelve months and of his county ninety days immediately preceding the day of election, he can register and vote on that day.—Wilmington Star.

The Modern Ananias.

Ananias as a liar
Was the champion in his day,
'Twas before Cy Thompson,
The fusionist, had his say.
Ananias wasn't no slouch,
For he told whopping lies,
But his were little white ones
Compared with Dr. Cy's.
Cy can lie in any position:
Walking, standing, or in bed,
He lies about the living,
And lies about the dead;
He lies for pure cussedness,
But mostly lies for pay;
And the price he gets for lying
Is a bale of cotton per day.
Cy doesn't need a patent
To protect him in his lies;
He's safe from imitation—
No one else can reach their size.
—J. M. H. in Goldsboro Argus.

Observations made at the Massachusetts agricultural experiment station show that 80 per cent. of the food of the ungainly and repulsive-looking toad is made up of insects injurious to agriculture. The toad is an especial enemy of the army worm, the cut-worm and greenhouse pests generally, and does a lot of good in its modest way.

How to Prevent Croup.

We have two children who are subject to attacks of croup. Whenever an attack is coming on my wife gives them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and it always prevents an attack. It is a household necessity in this county and no matter what else we run out of, it would not do to be without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. More of it is sold here than of all other cough medicines combined.—J. M. Nickle, of Nickle Bros., merchants, Nickleville, Pa. For sale by C. E. Holton.

"Ouida" has an idiosyncrasy that has probably never been shared by anyone else. She maintains a dog cemetery near her home in Florence, wherein each of her deceased canines is honored with a tombstone, on which is inscribed the name, age and peculiarly good qualities of the departed friend.

"Bobby has been worrying me to have you move to New York."
"What does he know about New York, I wonder?"
"He has found out some way that there are not enough school houses to accommodate the children there."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Three Doctors in Consultation.

From Benjamin Franklin.
"When you are sick, what you like best is to be chosen for a medicine in the first place; what experience tells you is best, to be chosen in the second place; what reason (if a theory) says is best, to be chosen in the last place. But if you can get Dr. Inclinatum, Dr. Experience and Dr. Reason to hold a consultation together, they will give you the best advice that can be taken."

When you have a bad cold Dr. Inclination would recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy because it is pleasant and safe to take. Dr. Experience would recommend it because it never fails to effect a speedy and permanent cure. Dr. Reason would recommend it because it is prepared on scientific principles, and acts on nature's plan in relieving the lungs, opening the secretions and restoring the system to a natural and healthy condition. For sale by C. E. Holton.

A young man who reaches the age of twenty-one after the close of registration, and on or before the 8th of November, can register and vote on the day of election. Or, if any elector has been a resident of the state twelve months and of his county ninety days immediately preceding the day of election, he can register and vote on that day.—Wilmington Star.

One Minute Cough Cure

surprises people by its quick cures and children may take it in large quantities without the least danger. It has won for itself the best reputation of any preparation used today for colds, croup, tickling in the throat or obstinate coughs. Howard Gardner.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve has the largest sale of any salve in the world. This fact and its merit has led dishonest people to attempt to counterfeit it. Look out for the man who attempts to deceive you when you call for DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, the great pile cure.

More than twenty million free samples of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve have been distributed by the manufacturers. What better proof of their confidence in its merits do you want? It cures piles, burns, scalds, sores, in the shortest space of time. Howard Gardner.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

A Rare Opportunity to Procure Desirable Tracts of Land, Suitable for Residence Lots, Fruit and Truck Farms, in Size and Location to Suit You.

THE splendid body of land known as the VANBOKELIN FARM, lying partly within the city limits of Greensboro, having been put into our hands for sale by the owners, we will on Monday, October 17th, 1898, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, sell at public auction lots in sizes ranging from one-half to 40 acres on the following terms: One-third cash, one-third in six months, and one-third in twelve months, with interest at 6 per cent. per annum on deferred payments.

The property is to be sold on its merits and not a single bid will be allowed.

It is just one mile by the road from the Court House to the beginning of this land, and the fine road recently built by the county connects to the Battle Ground runs through it making it easily approached from the city and very convenient for parties who want to avoid city taxes and yet be within fifteen minutes walk of their business town.

Those who want to live in town and have a small farm outside cannot afford to miss this opportunity, as there is no other land so convenient as this to be offered in the vicinity.

We will have no brass band or speech-making at this sale. It will be strictly a business transaction, and we want you to attend the sale whether you buy or not. We especially invite the ladies to come out in force.

Remember the date, October 17th, 1898, at 2 p. m.

The Charles C. Vaught Comedy Company and Miss Lillian Tucker arrived last evening from Danville where they have been playing for a week. They will play a week here commencing tonight. "The Buckeye" is the opening piece.

If you have moved across Elm street or Market street since the election, two years ago, you will have to register again; and if your name is already on a registration book in the county you must get a transfer. Don't lose your vote by not transferring your name to the proper book.

At the Academy

Tonight Chas. C. Vaught's Company, supporting Miss Lillian Tucker, open the theatrical season at the Academy of Music, presenting the irresistibly funny comedy, "The Buckeye," a play that is full of wit and brightness from the opening to the final fall of the curtain. Miss Tucker made many friends here last season by her artistic and pleasing presentations and this year is surrounded by an even stronger company than before. The specialty portion of the entertainments is particularly attractive and novel, among them being the dancing of Miss Goodrich, with startling and most beautiful illuminated effects, exactly the same as given in the large New York city theatres, the charming little child actress, Theodora, the Sisters Miller, in their refined and attractive banjo playing, singing and dancing, and Messrs. Thayer and Russell in songs and ballads.

Tonight one lady will be admitted free with each 30-cent ticket, and seats are on sale at Gardner's Drug Store. Prices 10, 20 and 30 cents.

Couldn't Identify Him.

Several houses about one and a half miles from town were broken into last week by a negro. The negro was seen several times, but could not be identified. Yesterday afternoon several of the citizens of that section caught a suspicious looking fellow and kept him while one of the party came to town after an officer and a warrant. Policeman Scott went out but none of the party could identify the negro, who gave his name as Wharton. He was turned loose. The natives of that vicinity are stirred up, and any one approaching their residences at night without giving the countersign will hear the report of a gun.

Ladies', Misses' and Children's Shoes of every style, size at width at Shrier's, 216 South Elm street.

In a Bad Fix.

The greater part of the witnesses at Federal court have returned home and the crowd around the court house has thinned out materially. Some of them came expecting to stay only a few days and had to remain all last week. One poor fellow, who only brought feed enough to last three days for his horse had to remain all last week. The food he brought for himself spoiled, and being without money, he was in a bad fix. His horse was looking pretty lean on Friday, but the fellow said if he ever did get started home he would certainly make good time and let his horse graze on the way. Many of them walked down and will also go back that way—foot back as they call it.

Our Grand Fall Opening

Takes Place

Saturday and Monday

Oct. 8th and 10th.

We want each and every one of our friends and patrons to consider themselves personally invited to attend our GRAND FALL OPENING, SATURDAY AND MONDAY, Oct. 8th and 10th. We refrained from sending out special announcement cards, as we think it but fair that each and all should alike receive a cordial invitation. While our store contains the richest, the finest, the most exclusive, of all the New Fall goods, those whose taste and purse runs along more modest lines have not been forgotten. So we take this the most public, the most far-reaching way, to extend to each and all a hearty welcome to our display for the Fall and coming Winter.

Our preparations have been extraordinary, and we want you to enjoy the fruit of our labor, time and enterprise. All departments will appeal to you items of special interest, whose "OPENING" prices will make your coming worth while.

Evening Reception will be held Saturday and Monday, Oct. 8th and 10th, from 7.30 to 9.30. Prof. Elam's fine Greensboro Orchestra will be in attendance and render all the popular airs of the day to enliven the occasion.

Store will close at 6.30 P. M.; open at 7.30 sharp, when we will welcome all to the reception.

From Caswell comes the reliable news that democracy is making great gains, and that Kitchen will receive a larger number of votes than he did two years ago.
